

Maxim Massenkoff

Employment and Affiliations

2020– Assistant Professor, Graduate School of Defense Management, Naval Postgraduate School

Education

2014–2020 Ph.D. in Economics, University of California, Berkeley.

2010 B.A. in Economics (Summa Cum Laude), University of California, Santa Barbara.

Teaching

2020– Introduction to probability and statistics, Naval Postgraduate School.

2020– Multivariate data analysis (Applied econometrics), Naval Postgraduate School.

2018 Program evaluation, UC Berkeley GSPP.

2013–2014 Game theory and psychology, Harvard and MIT.

Working Papers

“Wage stagnation and the rise of merit pay” (w/ Nathan Wilmers). Conditionally accepted, AEJ: Applied.

“Striking Out: Economic Outcomes of Strikers in an Era of Weak Unions” (w/ Nathan Wilmers). Revise and resubmit, Journal of Labor Economics.

“Family formation and crime” (w/ Evan K. Rose). Working paper.

“Racial inequality in the U.S. unemployment insurance system” (w/ Daphnè Skandalis and Ioana Marinescu). Working paper.

“Beyond crime rates: How did public safety change in 2020?” (w/ Aaron Chalfin). Working paper.

“Job search and unemployment insurance: New evidence from one million audits.” Working paper.

Publications

“Kill or die: Moral judgment alters linguistic coding of causality.” (w/ Julian De Freitas, Peter DeScioli, Jason Nemirow, and Steven Pinker) Journal of Experimental Psychology: Learning, Memory, and Cognition. 2017.

“Equity or equality? Moral judgments follow the money.” (w/ Peter DeScioli, Robert Kurzban, Alex Shaw, and Michael Bang Petersen) Proceedings of the Royal Society B. 2014.

“How universal is the Big Five? Testing the five-factor model of personality variation among forager–farmers in the Bolivian Amazon.” (w/ Michael Gurven, Chris von Rueden, Hillard Kaplan, and Marino Lero Vie) Journal of personality and social psychology. 2013.

Awards and Fellowships

2014 University Fellowship, UC Berkeley

2014 Bok Prize for Teaching Excellence, Harvard University

Reviewer

American Economic Journal: Economic Policy, American Economic Review, Economics Bulletin, Journal of Public Economics, Review of Economics and Statistics

Other Information

Citizenship United States